

Connecting People. Creating Wealth.

Greater Dallas Indo American Chamber of Commerce

Women's Business Forum

July Networking

'SHARING THE VISION'
COME AND LEARN THE TOOLS AND
TECHNIQUE OF A SUCCESSFUL
MINORITY OWNED BUSINESS WOMAN

Gina Puente-Brancato
(President & Owner, Puente-Brancato Enterprises Inc.)

Don't miss an opportunity to listen to Ms Puente-Brancato's experiences as a Woman Minority Owned Business followed by Q&A. Gina Puente-Brancato is president and owner of Puente-Brancato Enterprises Inc. Her business includes two wineries, six newsstands, five Frullatti Cafe & Bakeries and a currency exchange service at Dallas/Fort Worth International Airport's new international Terminal D. She recently acquired La Buena Vida Vineyards in Grapevine.

SPONSORS:

Date: Wednesday, July 8, 2009
Time: 6.30PM-8.30PM
Venue: Flavors Indian Restaurant
4101 Beltline Rd,
Addison, TX 75001
972-789-9206
(MAP)

Cost:$10 per person (pre-registered)
:$15 per person (at the door)

Dinner included

To Register, Click Here
(no later than noon Tuesday, July 7th, 2009)

Come network, bring lots of cards, expand your association and grow your business!!!

Bonus: DFW Airport Business Diversity & Development department representative will discuss policies, procedures, and "How D/M/WBE (disadvantaged, minority and women-owned businesses) can do Business with The DFW Airport".

GDIACC WOMEN-ONLY EVENT

For further details, call GDIACC @214-346-9559/ Email:
gdiacc@gdiacc.org or contact WBF Chairperson Kumkum Jain
@469-964-6562